

Regarding joint venture proposal

To info <info@icagroup.in>

Dear ICA,

We are "The Institute of Certified Public Accountants" , A society registered in the state of Maharashtra, working all over India.. Check Our website for details www.icpaindia.org

We are India's emerging independent & Non governmental professional accounting body formed voluntarily for the welfare of Independent Accountants ,Tax Practitioners/Consultants, Financial Advisers/Management Consultants ,Tax Advocates already practicing in the field of Accounting/Taxation/Finance-Management/ Regulatory & Compliance laws in various parts of India.

We offer membership accordingly to above professionals...

we have to start our own self certification program called " CPA Certification and Training" in which we wish to provide a online training platform for our members and certification candidates..we wish to train them for all the technical and practical knowledge they require in the field of their practice..

Our institute will not conduct any paper pencil exam but will train professionals online using computer based learning & testing ..we are in the process of getting affiliation for our society from IFAC member bodies and so we have offered a proposal to ICMAI also..same is attached here with for your reference ...

we found your accounting and taxation course and design pretty similar to what our institute is planning..hence we wish to avail your on-line training facility for the same course with some additions exclusively for our members on PAN India basis ...

if you are interested in venturing with us..please reply as early as possible along with all your terms and conditions, as we need to start our training and certification facility as early as possible..and also wish to get recognition for our institute from a recognized International Accountancy body...

looking forward for further discussions..

Kind regards,
